The society met with Mrs Hurd at her residence, and decided on the 4th Thursday evening to be a regular social. Since the monthly meetings the ladies have had the Sunday in the church, bonged, and paid A.D. Smith $12.00 dollars. There was a good number out and the collection taken at the table was $4.45. The gentlemen came to tea. It was decided to commence an album or some kind of a quilt and present to Mrs Hurd and put names on the quilt and charge ten cents a name. Mrs George Hurd will furnish the colored cloth and Mrs Clara Dickey will furnish the white. Mrs Lu M. Bradley gave his name for the quilt and paid ten cents. He promised to give the ladies some calico to piece. At time of the President the ladies presented him with a berry dish, which was quite a surprise and pleasure to him. Those present were.
